

Magdaleena home

Few neighbors

There are only ten homes at Magdaleena 4.

Landscaped garden

A cozy garden with both old and young trees, bushes and various ornamental plants.

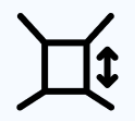

Fenced yard area

A charming private yard for both residents and their guests to enjoy.

Bicycle storage area

A convenient way to safely store your bicycles.

3-meter high ceilings

High ceilings really make it more spacious.

High doors

The height of the doors is above average - 2.3 m.

Windows

Wooden windows with triple glazing they fit really well into the milieu.

Playground

In the yard both children and adults alike can enjoy activities at the exercise ground or the ping-pong table built in the corner.

Possibility to charge electric cars

A personal charger can be installed at each parking space.

Environmentally valuable building

A historical outpatient clinic building, which will be rebuilt in accordance with modern requirements, while preserving its former appearance.

Water underfloor heating

No to ugly radiators or difficulties placing furniture. District heating is provided by the the city of Tallinn.

Forced ventilation

Each home has its own forced ventilation, which ensures clean and appropriate air.

Remotely read meters for water and electricity

One less thing to worry about.

Video phone

You can see who is behind the door using the video phone.